KERRVILLE
FOLK FESTIVAL

Does music really make a difference in the world?

We'd like to think so. Since 1971, Public Domain Foundation has spent almost 2 million dollars supporting children and family service organizations, domestically and abroad, through the royalties of just one composition, "The Wedding Song." Here's your chance to bring the special message of your music to life and sing it to the world.

This fourth MTL series once again seeks original compositions dedicated to a social or political issue of concern. Finalists receive travel stipends and free passes to the Kerrville Folk Festival, and top award winners receive donations of up to $1,000 to the charitable organization(s) of their choice.

Ten finalists will share their original songs at the MTL concert on May 31, 2008. Live recordings of this concert will also be made and distributed to provide additional exposure for the artists and their issues of concern. One grand award winner will join other festival performers at the main, Outdoor Theatre for Saturday evening's performance.

Songs will be reviewed by an esteemed panel of well established folk singer/songwriters including: Judy Collins, Christine Lavin, Holly Near, Tom Paxton, Noel Paul Stookey, Mary Travers and Peter Yarrow.

no later than February 1, 2008
